

Don't drink 30/1287.

Dear Ruth and family.

I have been with my good wife Joan-Gail who died 9th August this year. She had mesothelioma cancer, which she stood up to in many years. She was operated first time about 14 years ago. As far as 1982 she felt rather good and was nearly happy that she had survived her illness. But that year the cancer returned and occurred in her body. She was strong and Joan and her life is deeply lost from me and my other children and grandchildren. We know each other since 1930 and had been married since 1935. She kept her will life all the time.

My children and grandchildren (most of them) and a sister of Joan-Gail, living in Falmouth, have been together this Christmas. I don't know how to arrange for me. It is not so easy to tell you all home. My children will support me. We wish you all a happy New Year. Well.
