The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Now thank we all our God
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who, from our mother's arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven;
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

Psalm 89

I feel like singing this morning, O Lord.
I feel like telling everyone about me
    how great You are.
If only they could know the depths of Your love and Your eternal concern for those who will follow You!
But my songs are so often off-key.
My speech is so inadequate.
I simply cannot express what I feel,
    what I know to be true about Your love for Your creatures upon this world.
But even the songs of the birds
    proclaim Your praises.
The heavens and the earth beneath them,
    the trees that reach toward You,
    the flowers that glow in colorful beauty,
    the green hills and soaring mountains,
    the valleys and the plains,
    the lakes and the rivers,
    the great oceans that pound our shores,
    they proclaim Your greatness, O God,
    and Your love for the sons of men.
How glorious it is to be alive, O Lord!
May every breath of my body,
    every beat of my heart,
    be dedicated to Your praise and glory.

Yes, my darling you will be Always young and fair to me.
