Anne was predeceased by her father Dezso Gyorgy in 1976. Anne was born in Budapest, Hungary, on June 3, 1933. She emigrated to Canada together with her family in 1951, settling in Montreal where she studied French at McGill University, obtaining a Master of Arts degree. Following studies in education she taught for a time in Montreal but then, in 1957, moved to Radcliffe College in Boston to begin work on a doctorate in French. In 1959 she married Harvey and moved to Saskatoon. After raising her three children Anne followed in her father's footsteps and went to law school. She graduated in 1981 from the University of Saskatchewan and maintained a private law practice in combination with translation work until her untimely death. Anne was warm, sincere and vivacious with an irrepressible sense of humour. She was a uniting bond for members of her family and influenced them with her high principles, her strength in times of trouble and her immense capacity for love. Anne had a wide-ranging interest in the arts, and enjoyed hiking, swimming and cross-country skiing. Most of all she loved visits with her family and friends. She lived life to the fullest, and a favourite motto was, "This is the day that the Lord hath made." Her loss will be felt deeply but we have an abiding faith that her beautiful soul now resides in heaven and that she will always be near us. The Funeral service will be held in Redeemer Lutheran Church, Preston and Main St. at 2:00 p.m. November 22 conducted by Pastor Hugh Farmer. Interment will follow in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, donations to a charity of the donor's choice would be appreciated. Funeral arrangements are in the care of the Saskatoon Funeral Home.

DIRKS (Jacobson) — Elijah Lee, 10 months of Saskatoon, SK. On May 4, 1996, in the loving arms of his mother and father, Elijah was given back to the Lord, after a courageous battle with Nemaline Myopathy. He was predeceased by his baby brother in 1980. Elijah will be forever loved by his mother, Arlene; and father, Paul; sister, Kristine; and his brothers, Ryon and Jared; grandparents, Rueben and Lois Dirks, Ted and Phyllis Jacobson; his aunt, Carrie; aunt, Kathy; and numerous friends that new him. Elijah's five and a half months spent at home were filled with never ending joy and miracles. A genetic disease caused may obstacles, which Elijah sought to overcome. He thrived beyond all expectations. His gentle spirit and loving eyes touched us each and every moment. Although his time with us was short, he brought into our lives a love and peace that will last an eternity. On Wednesday, April 17, Elijah was readmitted to Royal University Hospital and after surgery and a biopsy, it was found that he had a fatal genetic disease. Our thanks to Dr. Rossi, Dr. Griebel, Dr. Lowry and all other specialists for diagnosing our son. Our most heartfelt thanks to Dr. McKenna, who supported our wishes and made it possible for our precious baby's last day to be as comfortable as possible. Thanks to Sheila of PICU and Tammi and Kristi from PEDS 3100 for their support and kindness throughout the night. Without the constant support of all staff from NICU, PICU and PEDS 3100 at Royal University Hospital, the Kinsmen Children's Centre, ARS Vital Air and our Health nurse, Lorraine, our family and friends, we would not have had these wonderful ten months with Elijah. Our thanks to you and God bless you all. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, May 9 at 2:00 p.m. at the Dalmeny Funeral Home. Interment will be at the Dalmeny Community Church Cemetery.
Arlene and Paul.

GRANT — Levi Randall. On Thursday, April 18, 1996, our little angel went home to Jesus after just ten months with us on earth. He passed away peacefully in the arms of his family, a merciful end to the suffering he had endured since January. Left to mourn are his parents, Gordon and Sheri; brother, Jakob; grandparents, Gene and Esther Grant of Saskatoon, Bob and Marilyn Solley of Saskatchewan Beach, and Linda and Felix Fischer of Pilger, SK; aunts and uncles, James Grant of Saskatoon, Wendy Solley of Victoria, BC, Lorne Grant and Louise Bergeron of Montreal, and Brenda Grant of Montreal; cousins, Jennifer and Corey Grant of Montreal; as well as numerous Great-Grandparents, aunts, uncles, and second cousins. Levi was a happy little fighter who bestowed a lifetime's worth of brilliant smiles in his short time here, uplifting everyone who knew him. His genes, however, were against him. Batten's disease showed itself for the first time on January 27, eating away at his cells. We thank God that his suffering was not longer. We especially thank the wonderful people at Our Savior's Lutheran and our co-workers at Santa Maria Senior's Citizens' Home, whose loving support has helped us through this trying time. Thanks also to the staff at the Pediatrics departments of Regina General Hospital and Royal University Hospital and Dr. Zaher, Dr. Lowry, Dr. Yager, and Dr. Casey, as well as Wascana Home Care Palliative Care Team. Prayers for Levi will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, April 19, at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, 190 Massey Road. Funeral will be at 10:00 a.m. of Saturday, April 20 at Our Saviour's with internment to follow at Regina Memorial Gardens. Funeral arrangements in care of REGINA FUNERAL HOME. Flowers are gratefully declined. Memorial donations may be made to the Batten Disease Support and Research Association, 17 Bell St., Regina, SK, S4S 4B7.

LINDGREN — It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Carl Venzel Lindgren, after a lengthy illness, on May 1, 1997. Carl was born February 12, 1911 to Emil and Karen (Carrie) Lindgren of Langham. He is predeceased by his parents; one sister, Esther; three brothers, Oliver, Clifford and Victor; and an infant son, Wendell in 1946. He is survived by his wife, Agnes; son, Eldon (Shannon); two grandsons, Jeffrey and Kent, all of North Battleford; two sisters, Cora Doig of Prince Albert, and Eunice Wunder of Foam Lake; and one brother, Norris of Langham and Saskatoon. Carl was very interested in current affairs. He was a long time member of Sask. Wheat Pool. He sat on the board of Lynne School and Lynne Telephone Company. He was a member of the United Church, and a lifetime member of the N.D.P. Carl spent his lifetime farming, first in the Lynne District at Langham, and later at Viscount. They sold their farm at Viscount in 1985, and made Saskatoon their permanent home. The Funeral Service will be held on Monday, May 5, 1997 at 2:00 p.m. from Second Street United Church, (213 - 2nd Street East) officiated by Rev. Carleton Miller and Rev. Bev Irwin. To those wishing, Memorial donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society, 438 - 2nd Avenue North, Saskatoon, SK, S7K 2C3, or to a charity of their choice. Arrangements have been entrusted to SASKATOON FUNERAL HOME.

Rest at last.

SPINKS — John W.T. Spinks passed away Thursday, March 27, 1997 at Royal University Hospital in Saskatoon. Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday, April 1, 1997 at 2:00 p.m. from St. James Anglican Church (12th Street and Dufferin Ave.) officiated by Rev. Michael Stonhouse, with interment to follow at Woodlawn Cemetery. John is survived by his loving wife, Mary of Saskatoon; and two sisters; and many nieces and nephews, all living in England. He was predeceased by his parents; two sisters and one brother. Former university president and a distinguished scientist, John Spinks was born in England in 1908 and after receiving his B.Sc. and Ph.D. from the University of London, emigrated to Canada in 1930 to join the chemistry faculty of the University of Saskatchewan. He continued research in photochemistry at Saskatoon and in Germany. In 1938 he was appointed full professor, just prior to his marriage to his life long partner Mary Strelioff in 1939. During WWII, John developed search-and-rescue operations for the Royal Canadian Air Force, took part in the early work on atomic energy and was made a member of the Order of the British Empire and has received his 25th, 125, Centenary, Coronation Anniversary Medals. Returning to the University of Saskatchewan after the war, John pioneered the use of radioactive isotopes in agricultural and chemical research. He was an active member of the Canadian delegations to the United Nations conferences on the peaceful uses of atomic energy and frequently involved in scientific exchanges with Europe. He published over 250 scientific and other works and through his teaching inspired generations of students and researchers. A major publication, An Introduction to Radiation Chemistry, co-authored with Dr. Woods has been translated into Japanese and Russian and is still in use today. One of his more personal projects was his autobiography, Two Blades of Grass, (1980). John was appointed Head of the Dept. of Chemistry in 1948 and Dean of Graduate Studies in 1949 at the University of Saskatchewan and President of the University in 1959, a post he held until retirement in 1975. John became a recognized authority on university education and served on the Saskatchewan Research Council, the National Research Council, the Defence Research Board and the Canada Council. In 1970, he was named a companion of the Order of Canada, our nation's highest honor. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from the Universities of Carlton, Windsor, Royal Roads and Saskatchewan. He is a member of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Hall of Fame, was Saskatoon Citizen of the Year in 1985, and received the Saskatchewan Order of Merit in 1996. His civic and personal interests and achievements were many and varied. Archeology was a life long passion, and he was a founding member of the Saskatoon Archeological Society, as well he served as chairman of the Mendel Art Gallery, the Bob Adams Foundation, and the Richard St. Barbe Baker Foundation. He was the Honorary Ambassador for Folk Fest 1985, and an honorary member of the Kiwanis Club. He was an elected Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, the Royal Institute of Chemistry, and the Chemical Institute of Canada. John's legacy to the world, our country, province, city and society will forever be felt, he will be dearly missed and remembered by his family, friends and associates. Funeral Services have been entrusted to SASKATOON FUNERAL HOME.

BROWN — Norman Clifford Brown passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 3, 1996 after a lengthy battle with emphysema and cancer. He was born October 3, 1921 and always called Loreburn his "home". He attended Fenlon and Bright Schools after completing Gr. VII, he began working for farmers in the area. In April 1942 he enlisted in the Canadian Army and spent three years overseas with 4th Armoured Sigs. Division - being discharged in February of 1946. He was very proud of those years. After the war, he started farming on his own and farmed at Loreburn for about 30 years, then retired and moved to Saskatoon. Here he made many new friends and spent countless hours in his shop, repairing a motor or just having coffee with a friend who had noticed the shop door open. All this came to an end as the illnesses began taking over. After several hospital stays, he spent his last month at St. Anne's Nursing Home - again acquiring more new friends with his friendly personality. He is survived by his loving wife of 43 years, Dorothy (Vestre); two sons, Ken (Jan) and Brian (Judy); and five grandchildren who were very special to him, Jeff, Jacquie, Travis, Robert and Ashley; two brothers, George (Laura) and Tom (Vivian); besides a host of friends. Esther passed away peacefully in St. Paul's Hospital last Monday after living courageously with cancer for several months. Born on a farm near Hazlet, SK, Esther Martin graduated from Outlook College where she met her husband, J. Norman Marken, a teacher. They were married in Lloydminster in 1936 and their son, Guy, was born there two years later. Esther and Norman lived in Harlan, Stewart Valley, Cabri and Wynyard before settling in Saskatoon in 1961. Their daughter, Roxy, was born in Cabri. Norman predeceased her in 1984. Esther was an actve member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Saskatoon and working with the Senior Citizens' Group gave her great satisfaction. Esther was the warmth and centre of her family -- generous, strong, kind and understanding. Everyone who knew her will remember Esther as a joyful and optimistic woman with and extraordinary gift for including children in her life, helping them, talking with them and loving them with complete respect. All of us who were children when we first knew her can recall Esther with special happiness and warmth. Esther Marken is survived by her children, Guy Marken and Roxy Bauman; by their spouses, Jeanne and Cleon; grandchildren Michele (Rick) Vircavs, Scott (Laurie) Marken, Jodi Marken, Kelli (Garth) Juneau and Neil Bauman; great-grandchildren Nathan and Courtney; sister Florence Grant of Loon Lake; brother Allan Martin of Nanaimo. She will be particularly missed by her cousin, Florence Edith Anderson of Chilliwack, her dear friend Mavis Cooper of Wynyard and an extended family of relatives and friends from all across western Canada and the midwestern States. Thanks are extended to Dr. Stakiw and to Guy and his family for their loving care during the last months. In lieu of flowers, please send memorial donations to the Canadian Cancer Society. Funeral Services will be held Thursday, September 20th, 2:00 p.m. at the Saskatoon Funeral Home. Arrangements have been entrusted to the SASKATOON FUNERAL HOME.

VAUGHAN — The death of William Melville Vaughan, age 82 years of Loreburn, Saskatchewan occurred in Outlook Union Hospital on November 9, 1981. The Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, November 12th at 2:00 p.m. from Loreburn United Church conducted by the Rev. Grant Wyatt. (In lieu of flowers, donations to the Canadian Cancer Society or the Loreburn United Church Memorial Fund would be appreciated). Surviving are: his loving wife, Florence; two sons, Ernie and daughter-in-law, Vye, Douglas and daughter-in-law, Velma; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Flink and son-in-law, Barry all of Loreburn; ten grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Florence McLelland of Moose Jaw and Mrs. Elizabeth Howat of Loreburn. He was predeceased by three brothers and two sisters. Mr. Vaughan was born in Durham, Ontario and came with his family to Loreburn in 1913. He continued to live and farm in the district until the time of his passing. Mr. Vaughan was a member of the Loreburn United Church, had been a member of the Loreburn Lions Club and over the years had been interested in most sports and particularly enjoyed curling. Interment will take place in Loreburn Cemetery. Funeral Service Arrangements in care of The Saskatoon Funeral Home

ADAMS — Richard (Dick) Alton Adams. Born December 24, 1938; died suddenly November 9, 1996 at his home in Eatonia. Dick was born in O'Leary, P.E.I. He moved with his family as an infant to Strongfield, SK and received his education there. He then served four years with the "Princess Pats" in Edmonton. It was at this time he met and married his wife, Laurie (Loadman). They were happily married for 34 years. He worked several years in construction and then joined the Co-operative Retailing System where he served several communities for the last 28 years. Over the years he was involved with the community in many different ways. Dick was a loving husband and father to his two sons, Richard and Trevor and cared for all those he knew. Dick was truly a people person. He will be remembered for his sense of humour and his pleasure working with the public. His cheery "Good Morning" made everyone feel better. He leaves to mourn his wife, Laurie; and sons, Richard (Barb) of Eatonia and Trevor (Sharon) of Red Deer; brother, Arthur (Pat) of Strongfield; his sister, Nancy Rogers (Rob) of Kamloops; stepfather, Alex Miller of Saskatoon and step-sister, Maxine Vernon, also of Saskatoon. Also many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his father, Evan in 1971; his mother, Susan in 1993; and an infant son, Robbie in 1963. The Funeral Service was held in Kindersley at the Funeral Chapel on November 12, 1996 with Reverend Margaret Crawford officiating. Honorary Pallbearers were all who shared in Dick's life. Active Pallbearers were Grant Adams, Irvin Becker, Doug Henry, Byron Trapp, Maurice Olsen and Jeff Bredy. Eulogy was given by a good friend, Mavis Bristow. Interment took place in Eatonia Cemetery. "Never a memory without a smile".
