The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley shadow of death, I will fear no evil.
for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

"We watched you suffer, we watched you sigh
But all we could do was just stand by
When the time came we suffered too
For you never deserved what you went through God took your hand and we had to part
He eased your pain but he broke our hearts
If you could have spoken before you died
These are the words you would have replied:
"This life for me has duly passed
I have loved you all till the very last Weep not for me but courage take
And love one another for my sake.""
