He is survived by wife Marcelle, son Bob (Lorraine) Mount of Edmonton, daughter Debra (Gary) Hopman of Lethbridge, grand daughters Kailey and Rebecca, and by special aunt Elsie McIntosh of Vancouver. He was predeceased by his parents, brother Don Mount and uncle Don McIntosh.

Reg will be remembered for his love of the Prairies and for his dedication to their preservation. He spent many years working in agriculture, the auction business and as a counsellor. His talents were many and varied. Friends will remember his humorous stories, musical and artistic talents, love of animals and his generosity.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.

God grant me
the serenity to accept the things I cannot change,
the courage to change
the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.
-Selected.

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes our sorrows, heals our wounds,
And drives away all fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole
And calms the heart's unrest;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul
And to the weary, rest.

Dear name! The rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding place;
My never failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace.
John Newton.

JULY 12, 2000
3:30 p.m.

Invocation: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Cong: Amen.

Responsive Reading of Psalm 130:

Pastor: Out of the depths have I cried unto you O Lord.

Congregation: Lord hear my voice: let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

Pastor: If You, Lord, should mark iniquities: O Lord, who shall stand?

Congregation: But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared.

Pastor: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits: and in His Word do I hope.

Congregation: My soul waits for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say more than they that watch for the morning.

Pastor: Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy.

Congregation: And with him is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Pastor: Glory to the Father: and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Congregation: As it was in the beginning: is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Hymn:What A Friend We Have In Jesus

What a friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear.
What a privilege to carry, Everything to God in prayer.
O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry, Everything to God in prayer.

Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged; Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful, Who will all our sorrows share?

Jesus knows our every weakness; Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden, Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge; Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer.
In his arms he'll take and shield thee, Thou wilt find a solace there.

Message: John 14:1-7 Pastor Dan Haugen

HymnIn The Garden

I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear, The Son of God discloses.

Chorus:

And He walks with me, and He talks with me, And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other has ever known.

He speaks and the sound of His voice Is so sweet the birds hush their singing,
And the melody that He gave to me Within my heart is ringing.
(Chorus)

I'd stay in the garden with Him Though the night around me be falling,
But He bids me go; through the voice of woe, His voice to me is calling.
(Chorus)
