

Norman Berg went to be home with his Lord & Saviour, whom he dearly loved, on December 14, 1998. He was in his 78th year and had fought a long and courageous battle against cancer.

Born on the family farm near Endeavor, SK on January 22, 1921, he was the seventh of nine children. He left school early to help out on the farm. As a young man he volunteered for the army during World War II but, due to illness, was spared from going overseas. He then attended the Saskatchewan Lutheran Bible Institute (now the Lutheran Collegiate Bible Insitiute) in Outlook, SK for a term of Bible School, after which he completed his high school, taking one year at S.L.B.I., one year at Preeceville High School, and one year at Aden Bowman Collegiate in Saskatoon. He married Dorothy Rawling on August 24, 1950 and graduated from high school in 1951.

He provided well for his family as a carpenter and cabinet maker and as a locksmith at the University of Saskatchewan. His favorite hobbies were woodworking, gardening, singing in choirs, playing his violin and mouth organ.

He will be missed and lovingly remembered by his wife Dorothy and his four children; son Phil and wife Darnell of Regina, SK; son Keith and wife Jane of Dunster, BC; daughter Joan and husband Stan Gitzel of Waterloo, ON; son Reg and wife Karen of High River, AB; his sisters Inga Brown of Preeceville, SK; and Bernice Henkelman of Abbotsford, BC; brothers-in-law David Jaques of Preeceville, SK; and James Archibald of Porcupine Plain, SK. He was also well-loved as "Grandpa" by Chelsea & Allison Berg, Erik & Laurel Berg, Jade & Jasmine Berg, Anna Lisa, Brian, and Chris Wagner.

He joyously joins his family who have gone before him - his parents Martin and Freda Berg, and siblings, Clarence, Melvin, Byron, Clara, Mildred, and Lillian.

You have been a very loving and caring husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle and friend.

We love you and miss you dearly!

*Blessed are the dead in Jesus' arms who rest,
And lean their weary head forever on his breast.*

*O beautiful sight! No dark'ning veil between,
They see the Light of Light, whom here they loved unseen.*

*Them the Good Shepherd leads where storms are never rife,
In tranquil dewy meads beside the Fount of Life.*

*O tender hearts and true, our long last vigil kept,
We weep and mourn for you;
nor blame us – Jesus wept.*

*But soon at break of day His calm almighty voice, Stronger than death, shall say,
Awake – arise – rejoice!*

Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A letter Jalmer wrote to his friends:

Dear Friends,

It is nice to see you again. It is wonderful how God works, how He does things in His own timing, in His own way. God planned that we should see you.

Wouldn't it be awful to live in the world with all its heartaches, fears, the burdens laid on us daily, sometimes it seems unbelievable. Life isn't easy, but God never said it would be.

We have a great God, a forgiving God. In our weakness He makes us strong. God looks at us and says, "My children, I love you, I will take care of you, just look to Me, put all your cares in His hand. My peace I will give you, My peace I leave with you." So let us just praise God for His word and promise.

Live prepared, Jesus is coming soon!

May God Bless You,

Jalmer

After I'm Gone

The winds will follow the prairie trail searching for me I know, but I'll be here in my quiet grave out of the wind and snow.

It will cross the hill where the briars are, where the sky and prairies meet.
Around the houses, across the flat, running across the wheat. For the soul of man is a lonely thing, searching the wide world o'er; for something he feels beyond his reach, or the glimpse of a far off shore, but I shall not hear as the wind goes by.
For my body, old and frail, will lie asleep in the quiet earth at the end of the lonely trail.

A cluster of precious memories
Sprayed with a million tears
Wishing God had spared you
If only for a few more years
You left a special memory
And a sorrow too great to hold
To us who loved and lost you
Your memory will never grow old Thanks for the years we had Thanks for the memories we shared
We only pray that when you left us

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now. He set me free.

'A capable wife who can find?

She is far more precious than jewels.

The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.

She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.

She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy

She is not afraid for her household when it snows,
for all her household are clothed in crimson.

Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her happy;
her husband too, and he praises her:
"Many women have done excellently,
but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give her a share in the fruit of her hands,
and let her works praise her in the city gates'

The following verses from Proverbs 31 are special to us.

They characterize Carol.

'A capable wife who can find?

She is far more precious than jewels.

The heart of her husband trusts in her,

and he will have no lack of gain.

She does him good, and not harm,

all the days of her life.

She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy

She is not afraid for her household when it snows,
for all her household are clothed in crimson.

Strength and dignity are her clothing,
and she laughs at the time to come.

She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her happy;
her husband too, and he praises her:

"Many women have done excellently,
but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give her a share in the fruit of her hands,
and let her works praise her in the city gates'
