Crown with Thy benediction this covenant of love;
And make this hallowed union Foretaste of heaven above;
Let pure and perfect gladness, Let pure and perfect rest,
And peace that knows no sadness, Thy presence, Lord, attest.
God bless the bride and bridegroom, And fill with joy their life.
Keep them, through all its changes, True husband, faithful wife.
If Thou wilt smile upon them, They shall not need the sun;
This thought their hearts rejoicing—Henceforth, not twain but one.

The lovely Candlelight Ceremony took place on December 27th, 1991

at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLean, of Moose Jaw, who on January 29 celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

The occasion was marked by a celebration at the Grant Hall hotel, with 50 guests attending.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean were married in Zorra, Embro County, Ontario, on January 29, 1879. They came west in 1891, where, at Reston, Man., they lived for 19 years, moving from there to Loreburn in 1920. They took up their residence in Moose Jaw last December. They make their home at 260 Athabasca street.

Wed in Skudesnes Church

Skudesnes Lutheran Church was the scene of a beautiful autumn wedding at high noon Sept. 1, 1962, when Miss Sandra Irene Olson, daughter of Mrs. Irene Olson and the late Elvin Olson of Strongfield, Sask., became the bride of Mr. Glenn Edward Joel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Joel of Elbow. Pastor Albert Sandness performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Dr. Iverson of Minneapolis, Minn. She was charming in a floor-length gown of lace and net over tulle. Her bouffant veil was held in place by a seeded pearl crown, which matched her gifts from the groom, being cultured pearls and earrings. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Della Olson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Betty Joel, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of nylon sparkle organza in yellow and mauve respectively.

They carried bouquets of yellow roses.

The groom chose as his best man his eldest brother, Larry Joel, and groomsman, Eric Joel. Mark Johnson, cousin of the bride and Lyle Joel, cousin of the groom, were ushers.

Flower girl was Margaret McPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes McPherson, Strongfield. She was lovely in a dress of yellow sparkle organza, carrying a small bouquet of yellow roses. Master Garth Storebo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Storebo, Saskatoon, was page boy, carrying the bride and groom's matching wedding bands on a cushion of white velvet.

The organist, Jill MacPherson, was at the console of the organ, playing the traditional wedding march for the processional and recessional. She accompanied Miss Sylvia Joel as she sang, "O Perfect Love" and Pastor and Mrs. Richard Snipstead in a duet, "Each Step I Take," also Pastor Sandness as he sang "The Lord's Prayer," while the bride and groom knelt at the altar.

The mother of the bride chose a two-piece navy sheath with white accessories, her corsage being of red roses. The groom's mother chose a two-piece beige suit with royal blue accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

The reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. A three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table. It was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Magnus Akre. The bride's aunt, Miss Lilah Storebo, of Calgary was in charge of the guest book.

For going away, the bride chose a two-piece sheath of beige and blue, with beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses. After a short honeymoon to Montana, North Dakota and Manitoba, the couple now reside at Elbow.

Guests at the wedding, coming from a distance, included uncle and aunts from Minneapolis, Minn., Hamilton, Ont., Calgary, Alta., and Greenbush, Minn.
