Dear Mamma & All, —

Major Martin, our bat-officer came to me last night and said it was possible to evacuate me to England, and from there my chances are to be good in getting home! He gave me a good proposition if I wished to stay. He said I could lay around for a month — with leave etc. before I would have to work, after that the hospital is supposed to close very shortly. Believe it or not I hesitated before saying I would prefer going home! Now I should make it nicely before Christmas. Fair. Christmas's. Overseas, away from home should be enough.

A reply. This afternoon I packed most of my things, ~~and~~ it was believed there might be a train to-morrow morning. So far we have heard nothing of it so it may not be real. Monday or Tuesday, I will take me to a base hospital in Belgium. From there, I should be going to England. However you will hear more of it in the next letter. What a telling it is! Shortly after I had received the news, the order was taking temporary. He said my heart was going like a steam engine — Yes he was exaggerating slightly because I took it and it was 96.

As for the shirt I saw it is O.K., if you have already sent a parcel I'm sure it's O.K. Says I saw the shirt. You know the ring that was given more just now. He will care for the time - Love to all to me before I left home. I cast it the other day - with a pity after having it so long and it disappeared. I may have come off. which I was having a shower. Although I hardly think it because I should have heard it fall.

I can't think of anything
