Dear folks.

Received a letter from Mom yesterday and Dec 26 and of course enjoyed it very much.
I just finished a letter from to Louise so I guess this one will be a bit rushed.

By the way, I have been thinking of you people a lot of late and also about the farm you have a chance to sell. If its forced you won't to buy that other farm, well thats sure nice but I'm sure all of us would agree that it would be better to sell the homestead and you old folks get a nice home in a city of a nice house out on the farm. You really need a new house and we sure would like to see you get it. What do you think of it? The old lady of the house is making some noodle soup for us to-dite and at time we do have a bit of fun too.
The two old people at the this house can't speak a word of English but they seem to understand us and we make out most of what they try to tell us. The old lady wants us to have our pictures taken. We may too and if they turn out O.K. we will send some home. Boy Gudrun and Walter how about a snap with all your swell clothes.
I have wanted one of you Dubby ever since you got your new coat to let the boys see that I can prove what I say about the rest of the family. I tell them that just because I don't amount to much isn't saying the rest of now a that means a little more making them and of the work in the army. Work I had there them in a shop of my own and it would be over letter. Finally some day, I got a note for you. I had not to be had and I hope that will not be a big mistake on my part. I am now making a very long letter on every thing that anyone should anyone
