

I tried to look out west the wrote me to come here for and as far have found out very little.
I told him I haven't time to just come here to drink coffee, I said it was fine to come for a visit but I would have liked to have finished the work at home first. Poor Kindele isn't under stand just what he has in mind either. I have spoken to many people I know, Boardman, Woodard Kam Wilson and others and they all say he hasn't been fair most of his friends in York, Ting all feel that he hasn't been fair with Miss Hansen. I talked to him and suggested he let Miss have the house, and
