Book of Remembrance

*Have patience: wait,
Till VISION takes the place of sight.*

Sacred to the Memory of Gustav L. Tastad May 24, 1957.

WHAT is this thing that men call death?
My friend before me lies; in all save breath

He seems the same as yesterday. His face
So like to life, so calm, bears not a trace
Of that great change which some of us so dread.

I gaze on him and say: He is not dead,
But sleeps; and soon he will arise and take Me by the hand. I know he will awake
And smile on me as he did yesterday;
And he will have some gentle word to say,
Some kindly deed to do; for loving thought Was warp and woof of which his life was wrought.

He is not dead. Such souls for ever live
In boundless measure of the love they give.
