

TASTAD CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY IN LOREBURN

On March 10, 1990, the family of Peder and Ruth Tastad held a come and go tea at the Loreburn Senior Centre in honor of their parents' 50th wedding anniversary.

The hall was decorated with balloon arrangements in peach and bronze. The wedding cake was made and decorated in matching colors by Doris Stammen, a family friend.

Leverne Baxter, of Saskatoon, was the capable emcee for the afternoon. Featured in the program were vocal duets by Helen Njaa and Kathleen McGillivray; piano numbers by Karen Tastad, Peter McGillivray, Margaret McGillivray and Sarah Agrey; violin selections by Sarah Agrey and a flute number by Karen Tastad.

Ruby Chrestensen and Sylvia Langager presented a humorous skit depicting Peder and Ruth's life together.

Pastor Ken Wilsdon led in devotions and Axel Chrestensen brought greetings.

The bridesmaid of 50 years ago, Mrs. Dora Johanson of Sylvan Lake, Alberta (Ruth's sister) was one of the honored guests. Other friends and relatives come from Rocky Mountain House and Grande Prairie, Alberta; Newmarket, Ontario, and Moose Jaw and Saskatoon.

Peder and Ruth were married on March 1, 1940, in Red Deer, Alberta. They have farmed continuously in Strongfield and Loreburn since then.

Their children, all present at the 50th celebration, include: Kathleen (Angus) McGillivray, of Newmarket, Ont.; Richard (Leone), of Strongfield; Garth (Carol), of Saskatoon; and nine grandchildren: Peter and Margaret McGillivray; Tracie, Ryan, and Chad Tastad; Kristin, Karen, Kirk and Sarah Tastad.

Peder and Ruth attend
