"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.... Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men."

Dear

I am happy to send Christmas greetings also this year to relatives and friends.

In looking back on some of the blessings that have come my way, I am very thankful to have enjoyed good health for my age, and have been able to visit friends at different places.

At Easter time we took a trip to Edmonton to visit Jennie and Jonas. They came with us to Sylvan Lake to visit my sister, Lydia, who had a lovely goose dinner ready for us. It tasted so good after a 100-mile drive! We also met and visited with most of her family, and others, at her son Howard, and Anita's home.

Coming home, we heard the welcome news that "Robbie" had arrived - a son to Alice and George - and a new grandson for me. He is now a big boy, and gets lots of attention and love from all the family.

In June we went to South Dakota for the 75th Anniversary for Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Pierpont. Many interesting programs, and the Sunday services were conducted by Pastor sons of the congregation. We also enjoyed meeting so many relatives and friends. It brought back many memories, as it was in this church we were married.

In July we had a week at Bible Camp where so many came to study, and hear the Word spoken, and with much singing.

In August we were guests at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Hawarden where we were Charter members. They had their 60th Anniversary.

Also in August was the wedding of Evelyn's youngest daughter, Garnett, and Earl Francis. All of Evelyn's family were home, and I had the pleasure of meeting six great-grandchildren.

After that, harvest-time! Everybody was busy early and late. The crop was very good, and we had nice harvest weather.

On November 9th we had the pleasure of visiting Helen and Laurits Tastad, it being their 40th Wedding Anniversary. Many friends and relatives came to wish them well.

These and many more blessings have been showered on me. May I in some small way, be a blessing to others.

May God bless you all!

Christmas and New Year
Greetings!

Sincerely,

Hannah Tastad
