

If I had problems with my knitting, Ruth was always willing to get me on the right track. She made many quilts and I wasn't the best quilter but she never complained.
Perhaps she had to take my long stitches out.