

Yesterday afternoon at two o'clock a large circle of friends gathered at the Bethlehem Lutheran church of this city to witness the marriage of two of our most popular young people; Miss Hannah Syhre and Gustav Tastad: the church being prettily decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants. When the bridal party arrived, Carl Anderson took his place at the organ and began the wedding march, the party advancing to the altar led by Miss Anna Gutormson and John Tastad, followed by Miss Louise Tastad and Gundval Nygaard and then the bride and groom who took their places in the center of the group. Rev. Danielson then stepped forward and pronounced the words which made them man and wife. The ceremony ended, Mr. and Mrs. Tastad and about forty invited guests drove immediately to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Anderson where a reception was held and the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends. An elaborate wedding dinner was served and music and a social good time filled up the hours of afternoon and evening.

Mr. Tastad and his bride both possess those sterling good qualities which go to make up the best of manhood and womanhood and we predict for them a happy future and join with their many in all good wishes.
