

Marriage License

Being it a widely-circulated fairy tale that two can live as cheaply as one, the following:

Gudrun Tasted

and

T. K. Jackson

are hereby authorized to commit matrimony, subject to the following conditions: the husband (hereinafter known as the "sucker") agrees to turn over to the wife (hereinafter known as the "head of the house") all paychecks, poker and racetrack winnings; to dispose of his book of telephone numbers; to provide board and lodging for unemployed brothers-in-law and other indigent relatives; to meekly reply, "Yes, dear" when nagged, and, on chilly nights, to allow said head of house to put her cold feet on the small of his back. In return, said head of house agrees to furnish said sucker with carfare and beer money, a minimum of one (1) home-cooked meal each year and such other conjugal favors as she may deem appropriate.

Given this 13th day of Feb, 1958. This license invalid after January 1, 1898.
