OBITUARY

Tamer Kermet Jackson

The passing of Tamer Kermet Jackson, 52, occurred in St. Paul's Hospital, Saskatoon, on Thursday, May 30, 1963, after a lengthy illness.

Born at Broderick, Sask., on Nov. 10, 1910, as a child, he moved with his parents to Kevin, Mont., and then on to Orian, Alta. In 1924, they returned to Saskatchewan, settling in Elbow and Strongfield area.

On June 28, 1958, he was married to Miss Gudrun Tastad, and the couple made their home in Elbow.

The late Tamer Jackson was predeceased by his father, mother and a sister, Mary. He leaves to mourn him his loving wife, Gudrun; five sisters, Mrs. Albert Milsten (Frances) of Elbow, Mrs. Palmer Grambo (Alice) of Domremy, Mrs. Ben Aadland (Mavis) of Strongfield, Mrs. Wesley Welkos (Gladys) of California, Mrs. Edward Moulds (Edith) of Regina; two brothers, Lawrence in Oregon and Sydney in California, and a host of relatives and friends.

Tamer Jackson was a member and deacon of Bethel Lutheran Church, an active member with special interest in Bible camp and Sunday School work. He also took great interest in civic and community affairs.

Funeral services were held at Bethel Lutheran Church, Elbow, on Tuesday, June 4, at 1:30 p.m., with Rev. Vernon Roste of Hewarden officiating, assisted by Rev. R. Olson of Zion Lutheran Church, Saskatoon, and Rev. A. Sandness of Bisbee, N. Dakota. Mrs. Mel Langager, at the console of the organ, accompanied the congregation in singing two hymns, "In Heaven Above" and "Rock of Ages." Rev. A. Sandness favored with a solo, "How Great Thou Art" and a duet was sung by Miss Kathleen Tastad and Rev. Sandness "He Giveth More Grace."

Acting as honorary pallbearers were Norman Ganes, Hal Bjorgan, Carl Vallevand, John Vallevand, Lawrence West and Kaspar Knutson. Active pallbearers were N. A. Ganes, Art Vallevand, Gordon Joel, Ed Tastad, Axel Christensen and Tom Brown.
