

SYNOPSIS

The musical begins by introducing Jacob and his twelve sons. While Jacob loves all of his children, Joseph is clearly his favorite son, and this causes resentment among the other brothers. In a jealous rage, the brothers sell Joseph to a pair of Ishmaelites and Joseph is thrown into an Egyptian jail. Yet Joseph's faith in God never falters, as the song "Close Every Door to Me" reveals. The Egyptian Pharaoh soon learns of Joseph's ability to interpret dreams and gives him a post of great importance. Little does Joseph know that this position will bring him face to face with his brothers and the difficult decision of whether or not to forgive them.

We hope you enjoy tonight's presentation.
