

Greetings from the folks here to you all

Tasta, June 27 - 47

Dear folks at home:

It is a week to day since we came back from our trip around Norway. It was a most wonderful trip. Waste to Eurnice from Oslo so will continue on from there with only a few remarks, as it won't be long till we see you. 2 weeks from tomorrow we leave here.

We went by train ~~osturdaen~~ to Trondheim it took us from 6 o'clock ~~at~~ until 12 o'clock mid-night. We had our hotel rooms reserved for us, a lovely big room - twin beds & bath, much nicer than Harwood. We liked Trondheim very much, the streets were wide and it was easy even for me to get around. The Dome church was very beautiful to say the least. While there we phoned Einar Berg and he came to see us. It was nice for us to see him but believe he enjoyed it even more, to hear about the people in our district. We sent greetings to all that know him.

the trip back to Strøgr. by boat was lovely especially the sun set in the ocean. I sat up and watched the sun set at 11- and sunrise at 2 a.m. I believe it is the most wonderful & beautiful I have ever seen. It didn't get dark we could read small print all night. We might have stayed longer only we expected Olga & Ann Carriene. They had come the night before we came back. It took us 3 days & nights from Trondheim to Strøgr. It rained when we got to Bergen & the rest of the way home. What I like best in Norway is the scenery, but more of that when we can talk about it.

Wed. Olga, Ann Carriene & us went with Martin Salstead all over Jæderen or a good deal of it. It is very level there and they farm with tractors & modern machinery, they have lovely barns & a lot of cows we were to see Apsta & Knuta Heia where Anne Garborg's ^{mother} is buried. Jonas can explain must close now. Thanks for Father's day cards letters and all. Am glad it rains and that every thing looks nice. Also the painting & all. We are very busy visiting every day. in a little while we go with Olga to town. Ann Carriene likes it here and have found several girlfriends she can speak to. Love Mom & Dad.
