Dear Ruth &amp; Pete,

Greetings from London,
 when I get back to Vancouver I may be driving to Edmonton as one of our best friends son is having a big wedding there on July 12.
 I'm going to stop in and see Dawn and Guyman on the way back. We have had a great holiday - Saw Montreal Eyeo - Portugal - Spain - London and Amsterdam. Have some slide pictures of all of these. It would be nice if you and Pete could come out to Red Deer Sept.
 14. Love, Andrew, Ruth & Girls

LONDON: The city of contrasts; from fish and chips to the Savoy Grill, Portobello market to Bond Street, the Tower of London to the Bowater Building, dustmen to dukes (and it's often hard to tell them apart) and bowler hats to bowling alleys—all this goes to make up the most fascinating city in the world. Entertainment knows no bounds; night clubs, theatres, cinemas and sight-seeing tours guarantee to hold the visitor enraptured for the duration of his stay.
