Defendant

I, JOHN MYER ISAACS of 12, Grosvenor Street, W. 1. in the County of London, England, make Oath and say :-

1. THAT I am a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature of the County of London, England, and also a Member of the Bar of the Province of Manitoba and Quebec and practice in London England.

2. THAT the Defendant above-named interviewed me on the 15th day of April, 1946 in connection with the divorce proceedings brought by her husband, and I advised her of the provisions of Section 8. of The Alberta Evidence Act, which Section I read to her and explained that she could not be compelled to make any admissions tending to show that she had been guilty of adultery.

3. THAT the Defendant nevertheless made the following admissions to me in regard to her adultery: That over a period commencing December 30th, 1944 and up to the end of April, 1945 she committed adultery from time to time at London, England with Captain E. Denham, who was a Captain in the United States of America Air Corps, and who has since left for the United States of America.

4. THAT I explained to the above-named Defendant the meaning of collusion and connivance and she stated that no collusion or connivance exists between her husband and her to obtain a decree of divorce in this action.
