make oath and say:

1. That I have made diligent and careful search in all places where the above-named deceased usually kept his papers and in his depositories, in order to ascertain whether or not the deceased had or had not left any will; but that I have been unable to discover any will, codicil or testamentary paper and I verily believe that the deceased died without having left any will, codicil or testamentary paper whatsoever.

2. That now produced and shown to me and marked as exhibit A to this my affidavit is my petition for grant to me of letters of administration to the estate of ROY A. COLWELL, deceased, Brakeman, late of the City of Saskatoon, and that all the allegations of fact contained in the said petition are true in substance and in fact.

3. That I will, if appointed, faithfully administer the property of the said deceased by paying his just debts and by distributing the residue, if any, of the estate according to law, and that I will exhibit under oath a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the property of the said deceased, and render a just and full account of my administration within two years after the grant of letters of administration to me, and whenever thereunto lawfully required.

Know All Men by These Presents that we CANADIAN INDEMNITY COMPANY OF WINNIPEG, PROVINCE OF MANITOBA,

A N D

HELEN COLWELL OF THE CITY OF SASKATOON, PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN,

Widow,

are jointly and severally bound unto His Honour Judge H.A.C. McLorg the judge of the surrogate court of the judicial district of Saskatoon in the sum of Seven Hundred ($700.00)..... dollars, to be paid to him or to the judge of the said court for the time being, for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves and each of us for the whole, our, and each of our, heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these Presents.

Sealed with our seals and dated the third day of November A.D. 1927

The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above named Helen Colwell the proposed administratrix of all the property of Roy A. Colwell late of Saskatoon, Sask.

, deceased, who died on or about the 14th day of September A.D. 1927, do, if appointed such administratrix whenever lawfully called upon in that behalf, make or cause to be made a full, true and perfect inventory of all and singular the property of the said deceased, which has or shall come into the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Helen Colwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her, and the same so made do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the office of the clerk of the surrogate court of the judicial district of property of the said deceased at the time of his death, which at any time after shall come into the hands or possession of the said Helen Colwell or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for her, do well and truly administer according to law; that is to say, do pay the debts which the said deceased did owe at his decease, so far as such property will thereunto extend, and the law bind her, and all the rest and residue of the said property do transfer, deliver and pay unto such person or persons, as shall be by law entitled thereto; and further do make, or cause to be made, a full true and just account of her administration within two years after the grant of letters of administration to her by the said court, or whenever she shall be thereunto lawfully required; and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will or testament was made by the deceased, and the executor or executors therein named do exhibit the same unto the said court, making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly.

if the said Helen Colwell being thereunto required, do render and deliver the said letters of administration (approbation of such testament being first had and made) in the said court; then this obligation to be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
