

Well-Known Town And District Residents Are Removed By Death

George P. Fraser Resident Here 40 Years.

KNOWN TO MANY

Duncan McLean Passes In 80th Year.

DUNCAN McLEAN

Friends learned with regret of the death of Duncan McLean at his home, Huron Terrace South, on Thursday, April 20, in his eightieth year. Born in Kincardine township, a son of the late Neil McLean and Mary McKellar he resided most of his lifetime in the district.

For the past five years he has resided in Kincardine, coming here after leaving his farm.

Mr. McLean wed Vida Ostrom, who survives, along with a son, Neal, Kincardine; three daughters, Mrs. Frank Vanstone, London; Mrs. George MacDonald, Port Stanley and Mrs. Joseph Surridge, Kincardine; a brother, Dan McLean, Kincardine township and two sisters, Miss Minnie McLean and Mrs. A. Colwell, Saskatoon.

The funeral was held from his late residence to Kincardine cemetery Saturday afternoon, April 22, with the Rev. S. M. Scott of Knox Presbyterian Church officiating. The pallbearers were George, John and Thomas Semple John Gall, Clarence McNaughton and Murdoch McDuff.

Who will be laid to rest Sunday after a service to be conducted by Rev. J. A. MacKenzie in McKague's chapel at 2.30 o'clock. Mr. McCaig, for many years a resident here, died suddenly a few days ago.

JOHN McCAIG

Funeral Sunday

SWALWELL—COLWELL

A quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Colwell, 648 Spadina Crescent, at 8.30 o'clock on August 17, when their youngest daughter, Minnie Jeanette, became the bride of Mr. George Reuben Swalwell, only son of Mrs. Swalwell and the late Mr. G. A. Swalwell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leonard Schnell in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dainty dress of white Georgina heavily beaded in clusters of shell pink and white. A billowy veil of tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms, which bound her dark hair. She carried a bouquet of lilies and carnations in harmonizing shades, and wore the gift of the groom, a handsome dinner ring set with diamonds. She was also the recipient of a substantial cheque from the groom. Her bridesmaid was Miss Georgina Swalwell, the groom's sister, who was frocked in hand-painted canary georgette trimmed with lace. She carried yellow lilies and snapdragons, and wore the gift of the groom, a ruby dinner ring. The groom was attended by Mr. Clayton Colwell, brother of the bride, and was given a pair of initial cuff links.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Percy Newell sang very sweetly "Until." Owing to recent bereavement in the family, the honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast and to the States was postponed. Mr. and Mrs. Swalwell will make their home in Saskatoon.

Buried

MRS. ELENORA McCAIG

well known resident of this city who died last week and whose funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were held in McKague's chapel and burial was at Woodlawn Cemetery where Bower Laidlaw, W. McGill, R. Swalwell, Frank Bates, Harry Ball and A. L. Stewart acted as pallbearers. The Rev. J. A. MacKenzie conducted the services. Mrs. McCaig resided at 416 Fifth Avenue.

COLWELL—IN MEMORY OF OUR LOVING son and brother, Roy Colwell, who died September 14th, 1927. Every day brings fresh memories of your smiling ways. And it always seems you are near. But our hearts are heavy with grief this day. Realizing our loss of one so dear. —Inserted by the family. e-9-14-c