Dear Mr. Fuller:

Re: PAC/P-CE-716 - Military Personnel Bank

In reply to your application for personal information under the Privacy Act, which was received in this institution on 7 December 1987, I have enclosed a copy of all the records held in your name in the above-mentioned Personal Information Bank.

Please be advised that personal information pertaining to other individuals (such as names, identifying numbers, etc.) has been struck out from the enclosed records in accordance with Section 26 of the Privacy Act. This section of the Act states that a government institution may refuse to disclose any personal information about an individual other than the individual who made the request.

I wish to inform you that, if you desire, you have the right to complain regarding the information removed to: The Privacy Commissioner, Tower B, Place de Ville, 112 Kent Street, Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 1H3.

Sincerely,

John H. Paveling
