Dear Lutz.

Thanks so much for your cards letters etc I have enjoyed them so much. I am out of the Hospital now thank goodness and I also am over the agony of these cancer drug treatments I took. I am up and around and have regained some weight - I was down below a 100 lbs. I am driving into Richmond to-day to mail some letters - so hence this hurried scrawl.

I am getting my circular cement drive way finished - also getting a lawn put in the back - so you can see I am still empire building. I hope I will be able to get myself cured from this disease but all I can do is fight and try. I am also trying to cleanse my soul in the meanwhile - and this is also a hard thing to do for an old sinner like me. - I took communion at the Hospital - and I am going to start church going as soon as able. I'll next time lots of love
Andrew
